

Read the Label & Dress for Success!

The crop protection label provides important information that should be carefully reviewed, such as:

- Precautionary symbols, signal words and hazard statements
- First aid instructions
- Precaution statements
- Required personal protective equipment
- Directions for use
- Restricted entry intervals, pre-harvest intervals and other restrictions
- Storage and disposal instructions

The product label is your best guide to using pesticides safely and effectively.